

Year 11 transition into Year 12

English Language & Literature

As part of your A Level studies, you will be required to work independently on many topics; let's start as we mean to go on!

This summer you are expected to complete a weekly independent task to prepare you for your English Language & Literature course. This is supported by the PiXL English Language & Literature booklet as well as the below reading list.

You should:

- ✓ Select ONE task from each those available in Activity One, Two, Four and Five – this will total FOUR tasks and you can select the one you wish/are able to complete. This should be written up/kept for evidence in a book or folder.
- ✓ Complete all of Activity Three; this is to help you to develop new vocabulary and you will be tested on this during the first few weeks of the term...so get learning!
- ✓ You should also try to complete the following wider reading that will support your study of the key course texts:

- I. 'I am Malala', by Malala Yousafzai
- II. 'Nineteen Eighty Four', by George Orwell
- III. 'Hamlet', by William Shakespeare

You may also wish to watch the following film adaptations of key literature that can support your exam texts:

- I. 'The Handmaid's Tale', 1990, directed by Volker Schlöndorff
- II. 'Othello', 1995, directed by Oliver Parker
- III. 'The Kyte Runner', 2007, directed by Marc Forster
